PROPOSED SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL FOR THE FREDERICKSBURG

FOREWORD

The 1962-63 school year is over. During it we have had some of the BEST TIMES we think we will ever have in our lives. We were alternately happy and sad, disappointed and elated, but always finally happy.

All the things that made up our school life happened every day and to every one of us. We sat in an ENGLISH CLASS and read a short story we liked or studied a poem we thought was "strictly for the birds".....performed a CHEMISTRY EXPERIMENT or dissected a frog in Biology.....got out our horns and tediously went over CONTEST MUSIC.....quickly SUITED OUT and trotted on to the football field, thinking almost fearfully about the game on Friday night.

We thought about the NEW SCHOOL--hopefully, gleefully, and with the anticipation of "Who would be the first class to be graduated from it?" It was hard to realize that what was only a shovelful of dirt on May 1, 1963, would become one of the finest schools in the State of Texas. Going into this new school will be what we feel are the FINEST STUDENTS in the State of Texas.

As the lyrics go, "The song is ended, but the melody lingers on.....". Likewise, the memories of a wonderful year linger on and continue.....

As you pause over these pages, the 1963 MESA staff hopes you will remember this past year.

Our Alma Mater

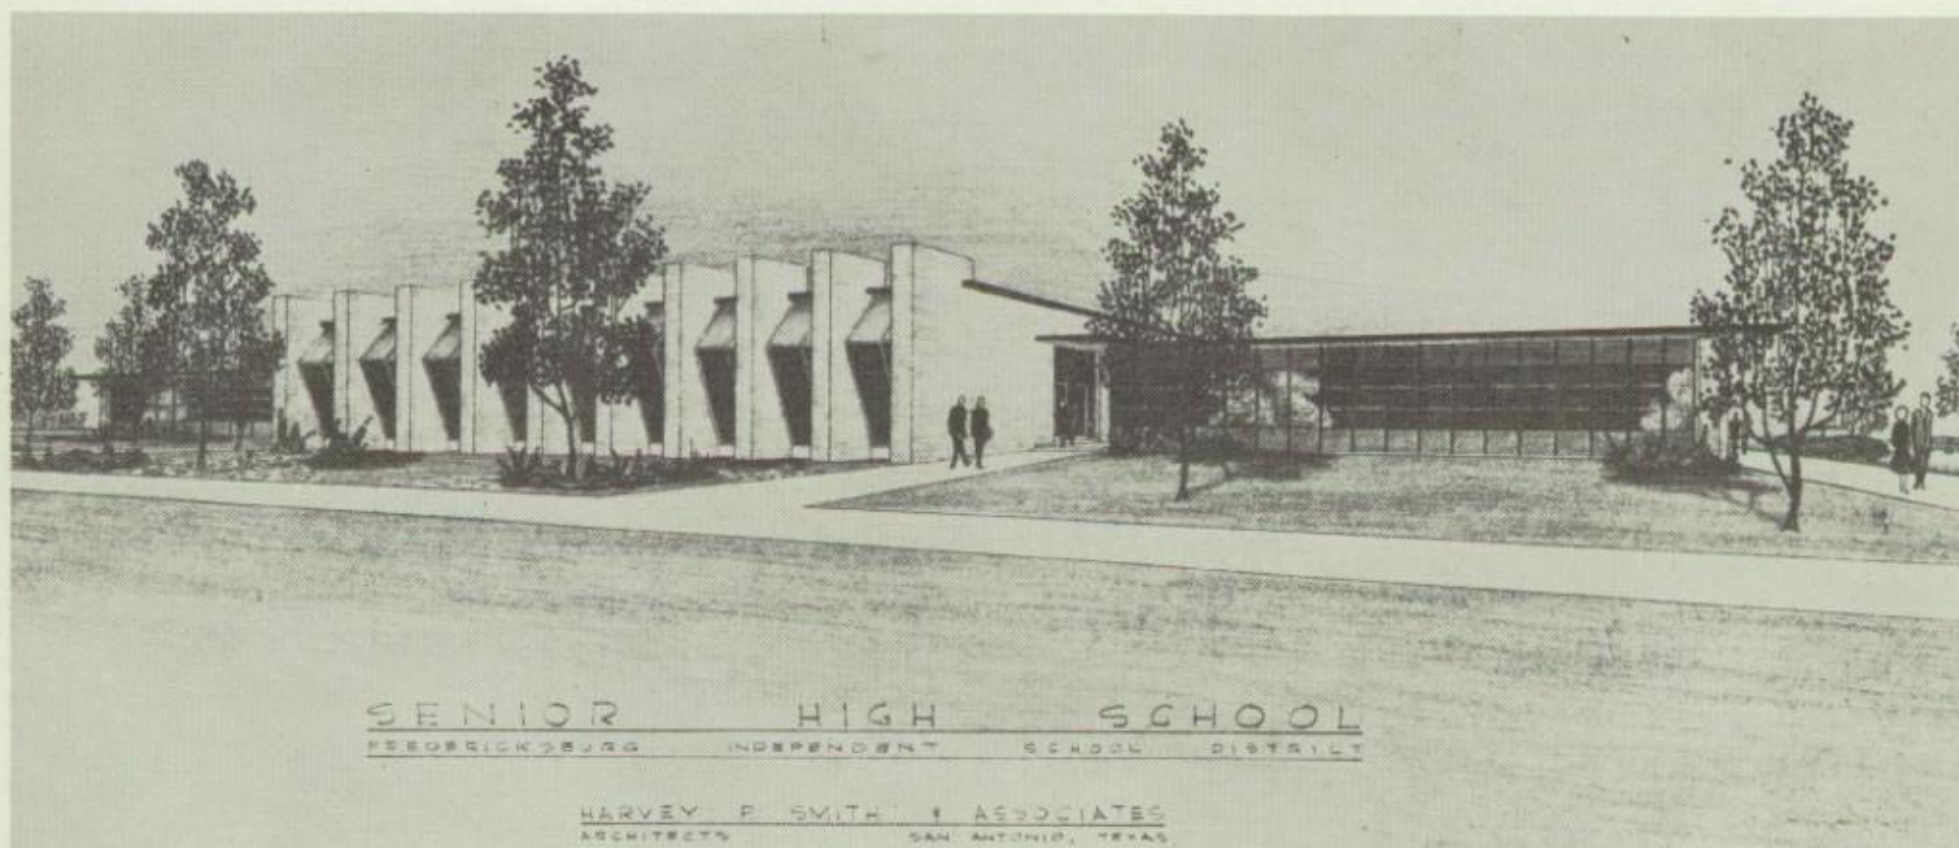

"Far above the vales and waters,
In our hills of home,
Stands our noble Alma Mater
Ne'er our hearts shall roam,
Stand forever, vanish never,
Thee we will not fail,
Hail to thee, our Alma Mater;
F.H.S.! All hail!"

"What was just a shovelful of dirt....."

STUDENT LIFE follow the crowd

All this mess--dropping my books out of the locker, being crushed by 400 FHS students--just for Biology, English, German, and Algebra II.

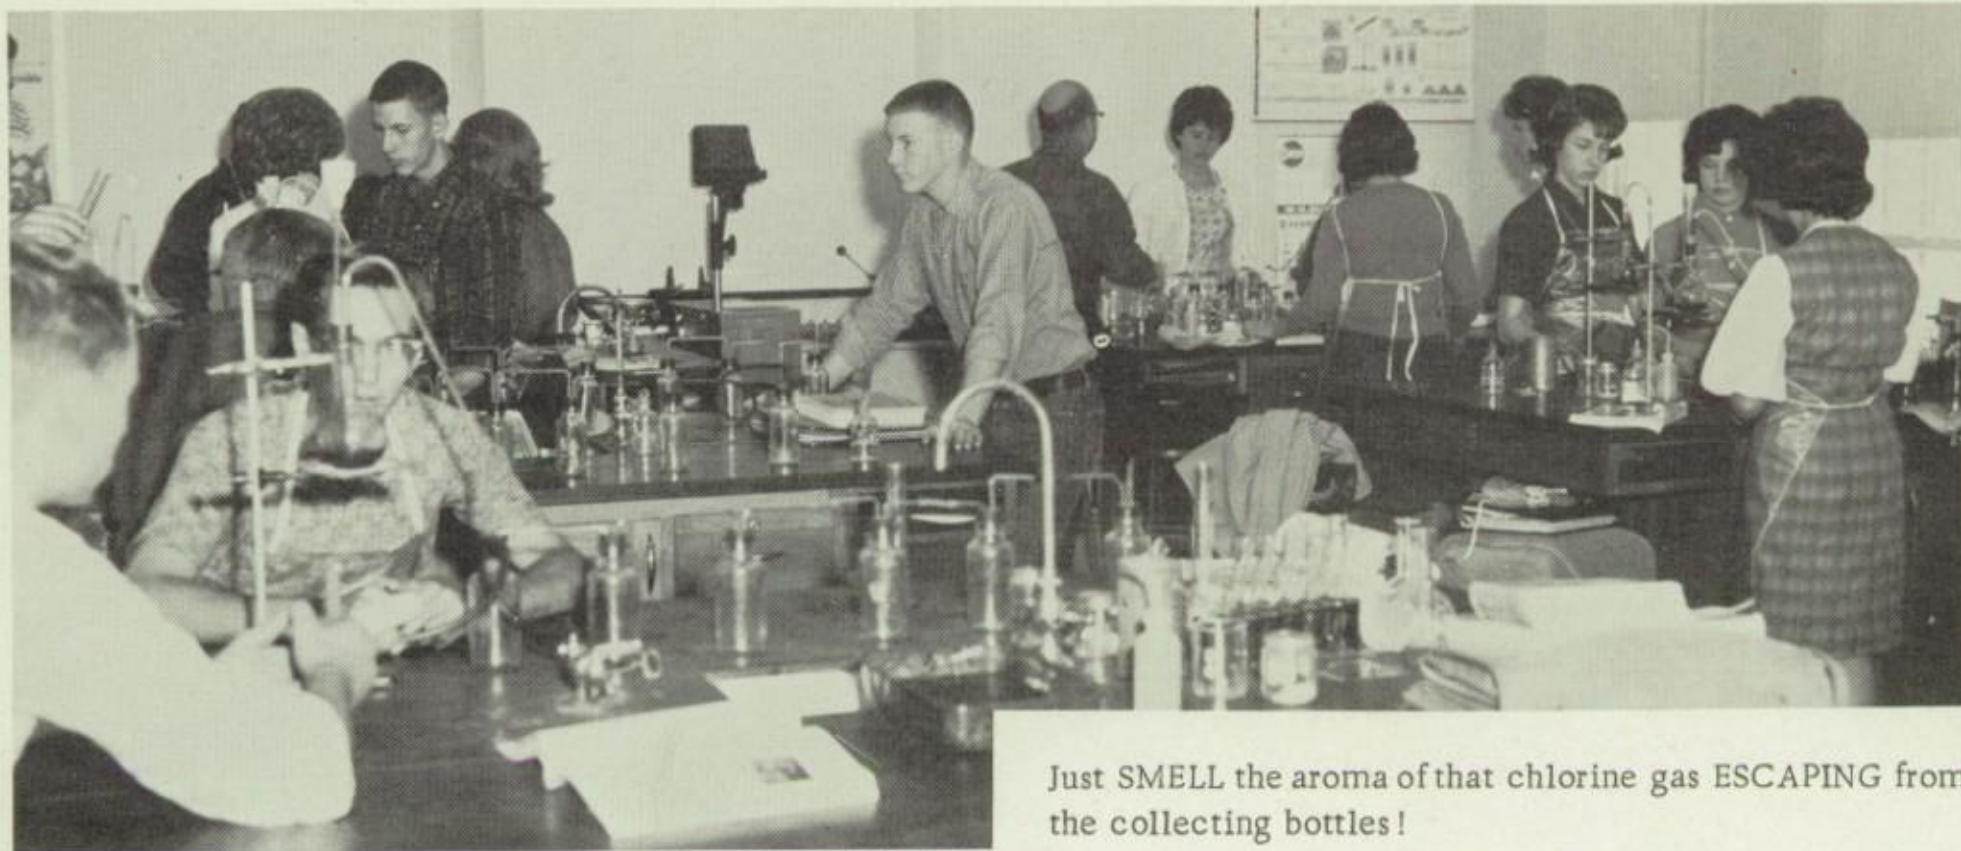

what? ME worry?

Mr. Westerfeldt, I was VERY sick yesterday. Here is the excuse from my mother. (I hope he doesn't notice that FORGED signature!)

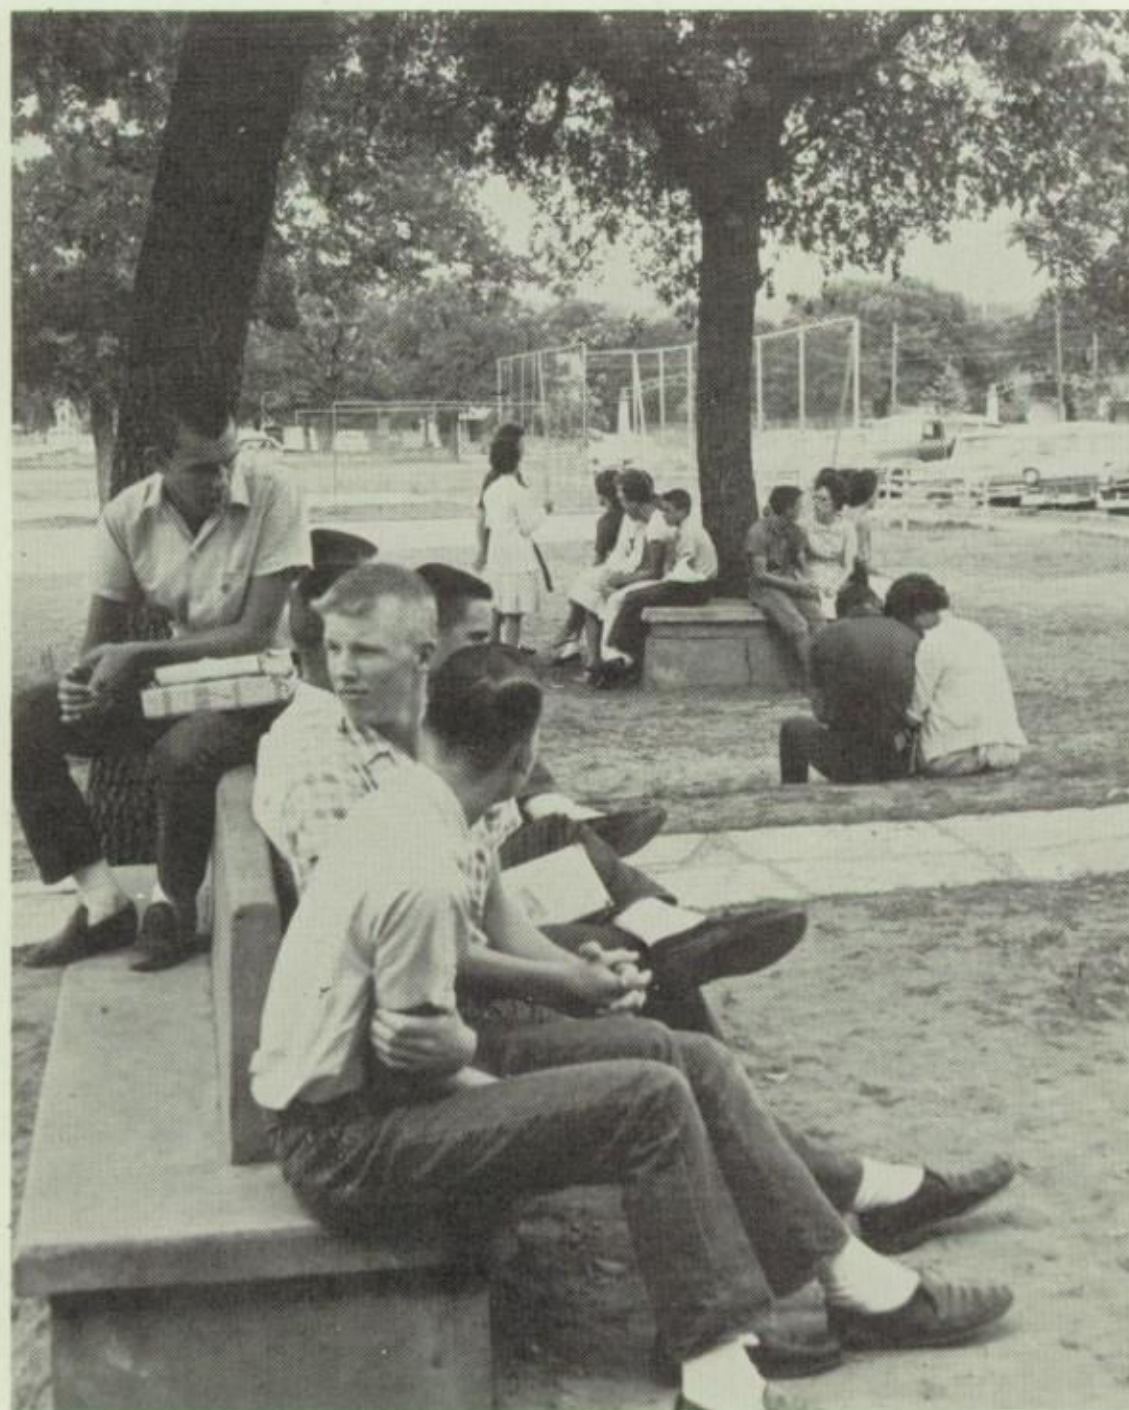

Man, am I ever HUNGRY..... after studying so HARD and CONCENTRATING for FOUR straight hours, I can't wait to eat this GOOD lunchroom food.

Just SMELL the aroma of that chlorine gas ESCAPING from the collecting bottles!

who's in charge here?

Can't you just SEE the energy these students radiate while eagerly waiting for the 8:30 bell to ring?

Mister, I thoroughly RESENT your taking my picture on a MONDAY morning before school has even STARTED!

in dedication

.....to Ella Gold, whose ambitious nature has made her students more aware of the necessity to make something of their lives, to travel, and to continue their education beyond the four walls of the classroom.

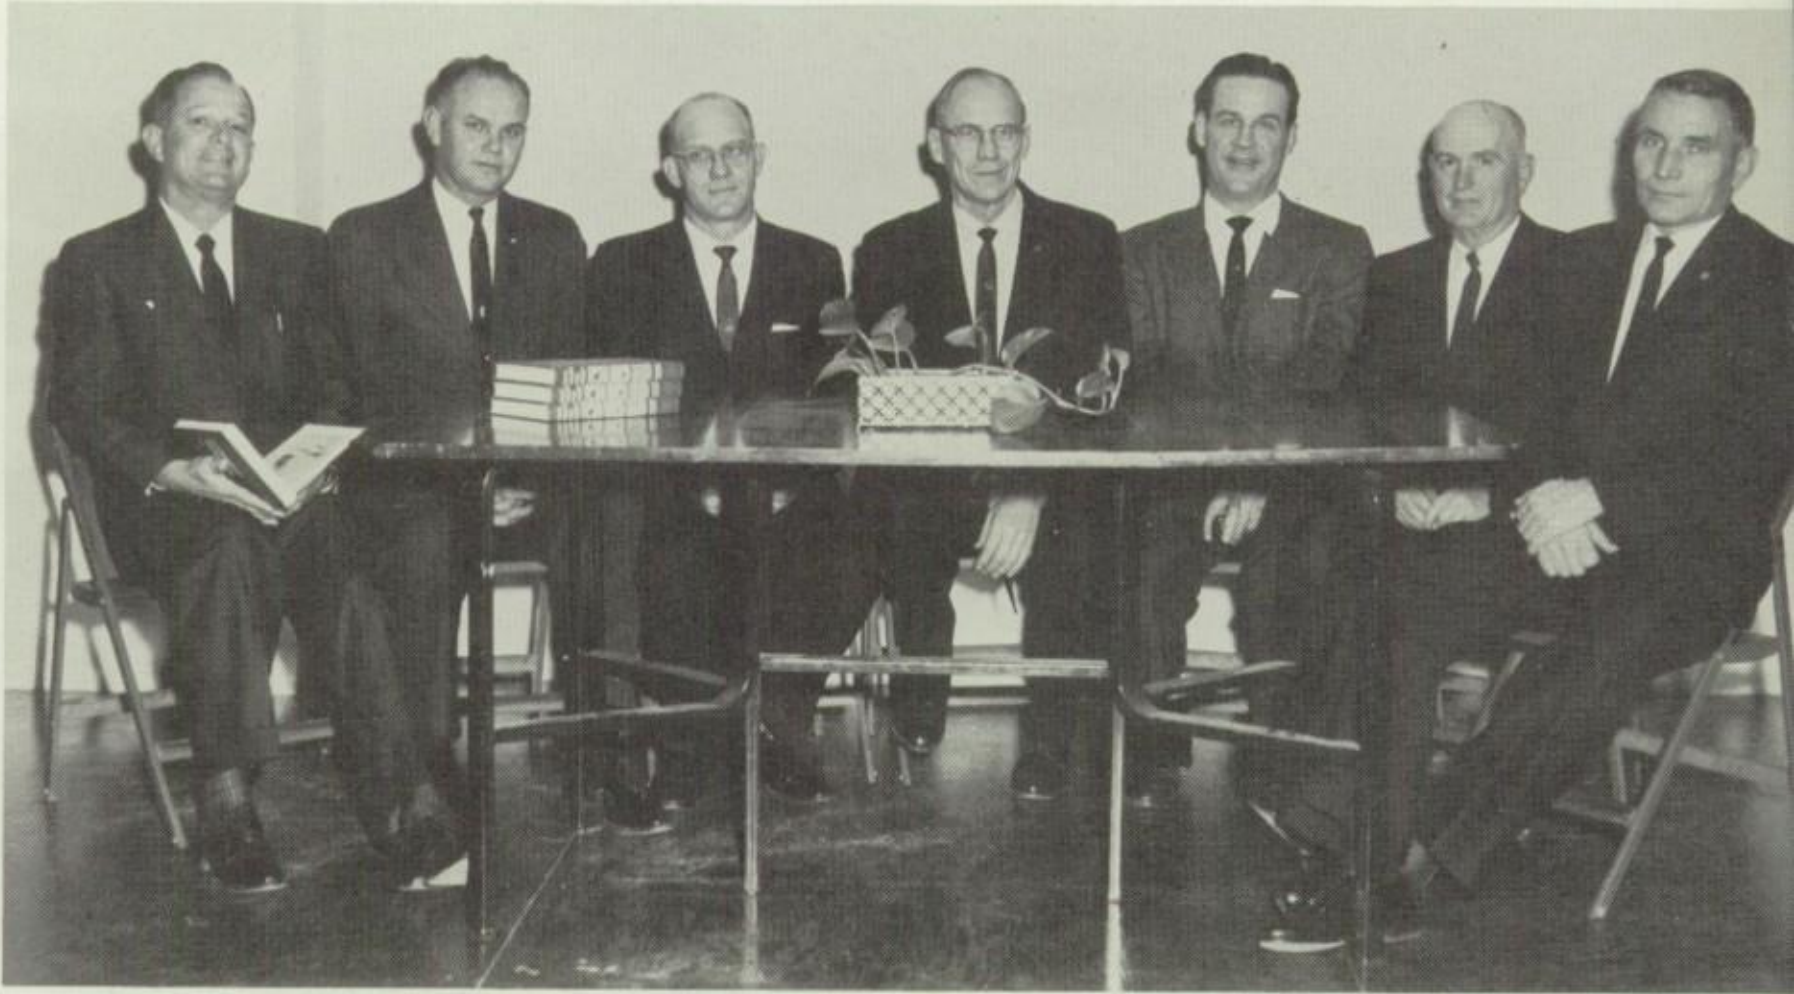

.....to Esther Mueller, who has brought out the best in her students and has been a dedicated member of the teaching profession. She is the kind of teacher who takes the time to discover and bring out the individual capabilities of those she instructs.

senior class

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS are Carol Nielsen, Secretary; Don Dietz, Vice-President; Mike Hagee, President; and Helen Kott, Treasurer.

After having completed all the other required subjects, good old civics and English IV remain to challenge the Seniors' minds.

The Talent Show at the PTA Carnival and the Fall Dance were the school functions sponsored by the Seniors..... and, of course, there was graduation.

The Seniors, after finishing these four years of study, now embark on a life-long journey. The world is theirs for whatever they make of it.

American history and English III are the subjects required of all Juniors.

Their big headache was the preparation for the Junior-Senior Prom. The Christmas Party and Concession Stand at the PTA Carnival are some of the activities sponsored by the class.

Now one year remains for the Juniors.

sophomore class

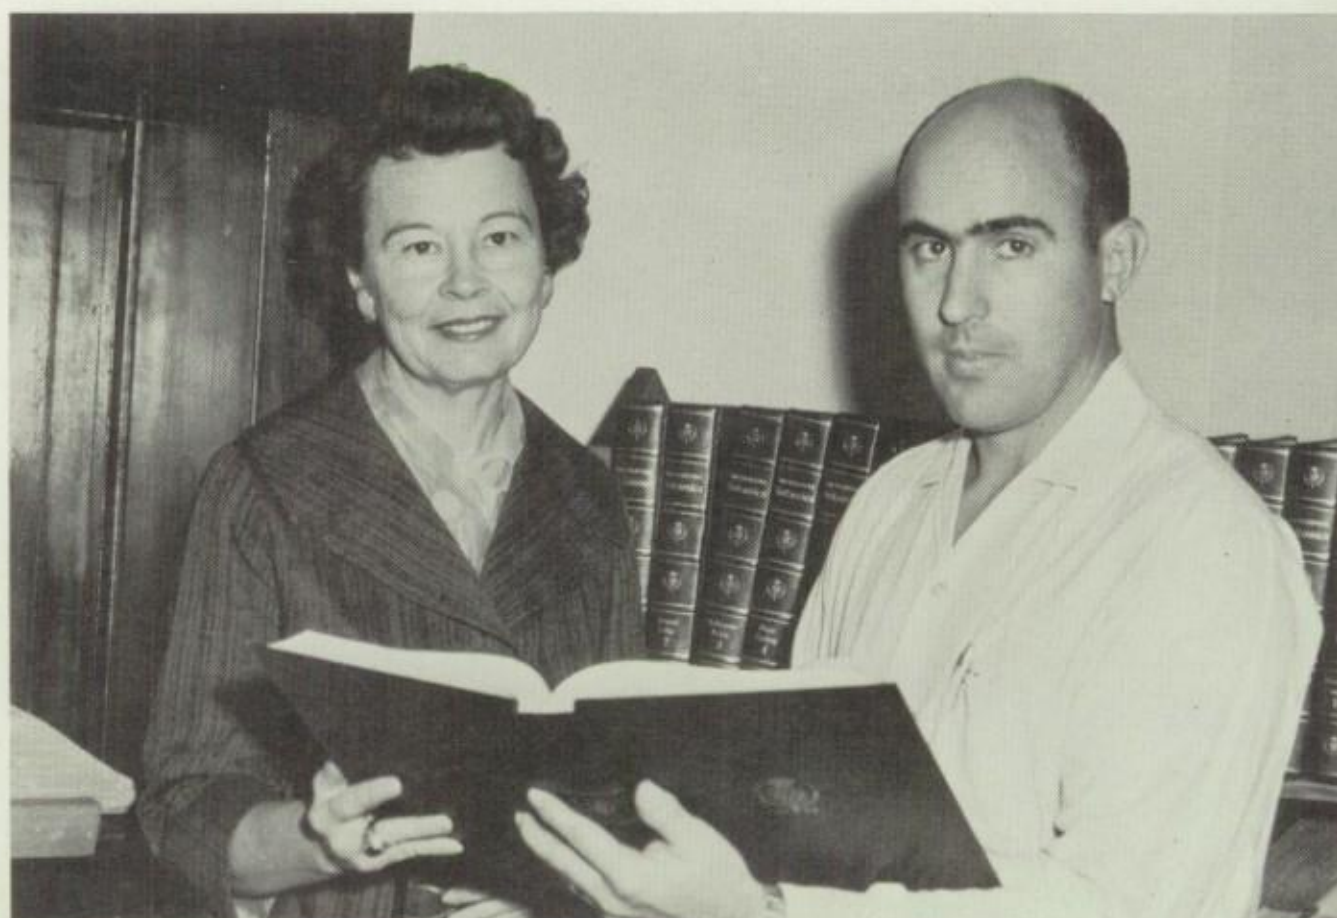

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS are Connie Friedrich, Secretary; Carol Hahn, Vice-President; Pat Holland, Treasurer; and Bruce Woerner, President.

The Sophomores had the joy and headaches connected with that famous biology class. English II also filled their school day.

The Spring Dance and The House of Horrors at the PTA Carnival were sponsored by this lively class.

The Sophomores, having endured the humiliaties of being Freshmen, united this year forming a very close group with a high degree of class patriotism.

FRESHMEN CLASS OFFICERS are Vicky Stahl, Secretary-Treasurer; Forrester Halamicek, Vice-President; and Randy von Netzer, President.

World history and English I faced the Freshmen as they started a new phase in their life.

A Western Dance and Sponge-Throwing Booth at the PTA Carnival were the activities sponsored by the Freshmen.

This class, though they began this year with many odds against them--mainly the Seniors--endured these hardships to become a very active part of FHS.

FRESHMEN CLASS SPONSORS are Mrs. Cynthia Bauer and Rex Glover.
